

Japan-IMF Scholarship Program

The Institute of International Education is accepting applications for the Japan-IMF Scholarship Program. This scholarship is awarded to Japanese nationals currently pursuing or intending to pursue a PhD in Economics at a leading university outside of Japan .

Award:

The scholarship covers all reasonable expenses for two years of graduate study in macroeconomics or a related subject, including one round trip airfare, full university tuition and fees, medical insurance, books and living expenses. The scholarship also includes a paid internship at the IMF during the summer after the third year of studies.

Application:

Please go to www.iie.org/jisp for more information and to apply online.

Feel free to contact me with any questions:

Megan Kennedy

Senior Program Officer

Institute of International Education

1400 K St., NW

Washington , DC 20005

Tel: (202) 326-7761

japanimfscholarship@iie.org